Agnihotra:

This is an event conducted by the Institute for Studies in Vedic Sciences (ISVS) as a part of their major activities. Agnihotra is a process of purification of the atmosphere as a cumulative effect of various scientific principles harnessed to give rise to an unparalleled purifying and healing phenomenon. According to the Vedic Science, Agnihotra balances the cycle of nature and nourishes the human life. It creates pure, clean and medicinal atmosphere and cleanses the negative effects of pollution. VISHWA 09 is yet our major step in creating national and international awareness about such eco friendly solutions. For further information visit www.shivpuri.org
