

Kalam's signature salam

Former President APJ Abdul Kalam asks to be treated like one of the guys by refusing to sit on a chair more ornate than those offered to other invitees at Vishwa 2009. The event was an exhibition of eco friendly businesses organised by the Institute for Studies in Vedic Sciences at Ravindra Natya Mandir in Prabhadevi yesterday.

PIC/ RAVINDRA KOKATE

I was in Juhu before 26/11: Qasab

MOHAMMAD Ajmal Qasab yesterday retracted his earlier statement and claimed that he had made the confession under duress. Qasab told the court that he was "roaming in Juhu" on November 25 — the night before the attacks — and had gone to see a movie when the local police arrested him. "I was also interrogated by foreigners and one of them was Headley," he said.